

Hot newcomer Chad Clovis and superstars Kevin Cavalli and Brodie Newport star in this story involving a corrupt police force where hustlers become the prime target of the officer's sexual desires.

One by one, the sergeant fires the officers for misconduct on the force, but when he himself becomes the focal point of the corruption and the prime target of a take down investigation including sex, drugs and missing cash, he finds himself fired from the force.

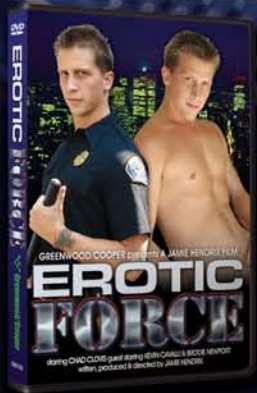

Will the love of his life let him back in or will he spend eternity alone?
